From the Pastor's Pen

March Madness

Are you into the March Madness that is connected with basketball? March Madness is considered to be one of the most fun events in all of sports. People all across the nation love to look at the brackets and make their predictions as to who will win. There are almost always a few upsets which were not predicted.

Let's see what predictions you might have made about things God did. If you lived on dry ground and God told you to build an ark to save your family and animals because he was going to send a flood to destroy the world, would you have believed him? At ages 100 and 90, if God told you and your wife that he was going to make a great nation of you, would you have believed? If you were 80 and had lived 40 years in the desert, if God told you to go and lead his people out of slavery, would you have believed him? If you were the new leader after Moses died and God told you to take the city of Jericho by marching around it for seven days, would you have believed him? If you were a teen-age shepherd boy, would you trust God to help you defeat a giant? If you were a faithful servant of God for all your life and you knew you would be thrown into a lion's den if you prayed to God, would you trust God no matter and keep right on praying?

All of those things seemed impossible, but God accomplished them.

When Christ choose simple fisherman, a tax collector and men with no higher formal education, and he gave them the total responsibility to take his message to the world, would you predict that they would accomplish such an overwhelming task? But Christ sent the Holy Spirit to these men and they did it.

Now when Christ declares that each one of us who have named him as our Savior has the same power of the Holy Spirit within us and he asks us to accept him, love him, love others and share his message with others, what are your own predictions that you will do it? Remember, you're not alone. "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me." Phil. 4:13

My March Madness prediction is that every one of us in the body of Christ here in P'Burg is going to increase in our love for Christ, in our love for his Word and in our love for one another in this month of March. Can I count on YOU to help win this prediction?

Love you,
Pastor Herder

March Scripture

For by grace you have been saved through faith,
