From the Pastor's Pen

- By Pastor LeRoy Herder

Jesus is alive from the dead.

Matthew, Mark, Luke and John all speak of the account of the burial of Jesus. Joseph of Arimathea went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. Pilate was surprised because he didn't think Jesus was dead yet. Crucifixion was a hideous way to die. The Romans used it to send a message, "Behold the power of imperial Rome!" Strong men sometimes hung on the cross for several days before they died. But Jesus died after only six hours. They didn't have to break his legs (a form of torture intended to hasten death) because he was already dead.

When Joseph and Nicodemus took the body of Jesus down from the cross, it was in bad shape, It was covered with blood, there was a hole in his side, his face was horribly disfigured, and the skin on his back hung in tatters. Those two men carefully wrapped the body in strips of linen cloth and sprinkled about 80 pounds of spices as they went. The spices made the linen strips stick together and form a tight wrap around the body. Then they took him to the tomb where they left the body.
