A Fond Farewell and a Call for Help

As you know, our long-time Church secretary, Jana Nyland, is moving on to the next step in her life and she is leaving as our secretary at the end of January.

I simply do not like having to write this, but from the bottom of my heart I say, "Jana, Thank you for your years of faithful service to me and to the church on behalf of our Lord.. I bid you a fond farewell and pray God's richest blessings fall upon you."

Jana and I have worked peacefully and happily together for many years. As a pastor, I have worked with many secretaries and none have been more efficient than Jana. She is over-the-top organized. She leaves us in excellent shape. I can ask her for a copy of the Christmas Eve service in 2020 and she has it. She leaves us with a big book with all the information we need to function.

We may need some help from some of you and we will need understanding from all of you as we work through this change. I am thankful for those who have said they would come and help for an hour or two or a day. Any help will be greatly appreciated. We will undoubtedly go through changes as we continue to search for God's person to be our next secretary. This is a very important position which often gives people the first impression of our church. Please all of you be in much prayer as we seek God's will in filling this important position.

Jana, have a great retirement and be assured that we all love you.

Serving our Lord with all of you,
Pastor LeRoy
